Telling a Random Story

Practice Quiz, 6 questions

1
point

1.

How many unique words are in the file likeit.txt?

You should lowercase all words and include the punctuation as part of a word. Thus, "end." is different than "end", but "All" is the same as "all".

For each new query in this quiz, make sure to create a new object, so each count will start from zero.

Enter answer here

1
point

2.

Which word occurs the most often in the file likeit.txt?

You should lowercase all words and include the punctuation as part of a word. Thus, "end." is different than "end", but "All" is the same as "all".

Enter answer here

1
point

3.

Find the word that occurs the most often in the file likeit.txt.

You should lowercase all words and include the punctuation as part of a word. Thus, "end." is different than "end", but "All" is the same as "all".

How many times does it occur?

Enter answer here

Telling a Random Story

Practice Quiz, 6 questions

1
point

4.

What is the name of the character with the most speaking parts in the file likeit.txt?

Enter answer here

1
point

5.

Find the name of the character with the most speaking parts in the file likeit.txt.

How many speaking parts does this person have?

Enter answer here

1
point

6.

Name one of the five characters in the file likeit.txt who has at least 10 speaking lines, but no more than 15 lines:

Enter answer here

Submit Quiz